

By the authority vested in me as The Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism and the Head of State of KAILASA, The Living Representative of Paramashiva, by the Constitution and the laws of Sanatana Hindu Dharma as ordained by Paramashiva in Vedas and Agamas, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. My administration and KAILASA recognize the practice of fulfilment in relationships its benefits extending to all members of the family and their wellbeing. At the world level, the proportion of adults aged 35-39 who are divorced or separated has doubled, passing from 2% in the 1970s to 4% in the 2000s. The Sovereign Order of Kailasa is committed to their obligations of reducing the number of divorces and relationship problems among peers to create a harmonious living for humanity through global initiatives such as eN-Relationship.

In Vedic times, the concept of divorce did not exist. Marriage was a wonderful relationship that couples shared without fear and greed, with unconditional acceptance of one another. This relationship extended to all other aspects of their lives. The Federal Government of Kailasa has also been working towards making the sacred science of conscious relationship building available to all practising Hindus from. Reference of the Annapoorna Stotram, Verse 12 explains the practice of fulfilment in all aspects of lives.
