Dear friends,

Hindus across Canada are celebrating the Hindu Heritage Month in the nation's most populous province, Ontario, which is home to more than a million Hindus.

It is my pleasure, as Mayor of the City of London, to extend warm and heartfelt greetings to the Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism Jagatguru Mahasannidhanam His Divine Holiness Bhagavan Nithyananda Paramashivam. and to KAILASA Canada for organizing this online event, bringing the Hindu Canadian community together to celebrate and educate future generations about the Hindu ecosystem and its contribution to Canadian society at large.

Hindu Canadians have played an important role in the country as we move to get back on track from the devastating effects of COVID-19.

Hindu Organizations, like KAILASA Canada, have stepped up to raise funds, donate meals for the most needy, and support our seniors during these unprecedented times. Your generosity has served as both an inspiration, and a blessing to us all.

Once again, on behalf of myself and London City Council, I wish all Hindu Canadians a Happy Hindu Heritage Month.

Kind regards,

Ed Holder
